New Orleans, USA

Internet of Intelligent Things

Call for Late Breaking News Papers

The IEEE WF-IoT 2020 is now accepting LATE BREAKING NEWS papers. The IEEE WF-IoT 2020 technical program will include oral and poster sessions, student paper contest, MSc/PHD Forum, Demo sessions, special sessions, and tutorials given by experts in Internet of things. Accepted LATE BREAKING NEWS papers are FULL 6-PAGE PAPERS that will be published in the proceedings and IEEE Xplore.

Prospective authors are invited to submit a full paper (6 pages, two-column format) describing original work. LATE BREAKING NEWS papers should cover new research in relevant topics related to IoT filed. Sufficient work must have been completed to indicate viability of the work, and it should outline new and exciting results. Papers must use the template provided on the IEEE WF-IoT 2020 web site. All submissions should be made electronically through the IEEE WF-IoT 2020 submission web site, and at least one author must present at the poster session. Publication in IEEE Xplore is contingent on registration for the conference and presentation.

We hope to see everyone in New Orleans April 4-9, for the 2020 IEEE WF-IoT.
